Presents

Gibbo is a wanker.

To make matters worse, Gibbo hosts his own nationally-networked, regional radio show that people actually tune in to, from Cooperwaggaratta and Rattawaggapeedy all the way across to Wangawaggawatta and up as far as Waggacooperratta.

Word has just come in that Gibbo has finally been nominated for his first Australian Commercial Radio Award. After eleven years, it's been a long time coming.

When Aimee Burroughs lands her first news-reading gig, Gibbo's given the job of showing her the ropes. Little do they realise, the foundations of the company are crumbling around them, and before they know it, the entire radio network could be swept away, taking every ego with it.

After a highly successful season at the 2006 Melbourne Fringe Festival, THE WIRELESS returns re-jigged and ready to flick the on-air switch on a whole new season of laughs.

Directed by Dale Menz, written by Paul Menz and starring David Dellar, Elke Osadnik, Belinda Di Vito, Dave Kenyon & Eddie Stowers.
